SERVICES

SUNDAY, ... 11 A. M., 3.45 and 8 P. M.

FIRST FRIDAY, 11 A. M.,
Morning Prayer and Litany.

HOLY DAYS, 7.30 A. M., Holy Communion

HOLY COMMUNION, First Sunday at 11 A. M.

SUNDAY SCHOOL AND BIBLE CLASS, 2.45 P. M.

STANDING NOTICES

HOLY BAPTISM.—In church by special arrangement with the Rector.

SOLEMNIZATION OF MATRIMONY.—By arrangement with the Rector.

VISITATION OF THE SICK.—The Rector is prepared at any time to visit those who are "in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity," and to administer the Holy Communion to such as by reason of sickness or any other infirmity are prevented from coming to the church.

N. B.—"When any person is sick, notice shall be given to the minister of the parish."—Rubric in Prayer Book.

BURIAL OF THE DEAD.—We hope that this service will never be held on Sunday, unless demanded by necessity, and that no arrangements for any funeral will be made before consultation with the Rector.

INFORMATION FOR PARISHIONERS AND FRIENDS

Communicants coming into the parish, or leaving it, should comply with Canon 12, Sec. 1, Title ii, of the Digest.

A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the parish of his last residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the wardens, a certificate, stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing; and the Rector of the parish or congregation to which he or she removes shall not be required to receive him or her as a communicant until such letter is produced.

Applications for pews or sittings should be made to the Accounting Warden, Mr. H. B. BARTOW, Farmers and Mechanics National Bank, 427 Chestnut Street; for envelopes, to H. H. WATKINS, Jr., 1031 Chestnut St.

THE CANON ON CHURCH MUSIC

1. The hymns which are set forth by authority and anthems in the words of Holy Scripture are allowed to be sung in all congregations of this Church before and after sermons, at the discretion of the minister, whose duty it shall be, by standing directions, or from time to time, to appoint such authorized hymns or anthems as are to be sung.

2. It shall be the duty of every minister of this Church, with such assistance as he may see fit to employ from persons skilled in music, to give order concerning the tunes to be sung at any time in his Church.—Canon 25 of Title I of the Digest of Church Music.

FORM OF BEQUEST

FOR THE ENDOWMENT FUND

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Andrew's Church, in the City of Philadelphia, Trustees of the Endowment Fund of St. Andrew's Church, the sum of dollars, for the purpose of said Endowment Fund.

NOTE.—The Act of April 26th, 1885, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable uses must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

CHRISTMAS OFFERING

By an oversight, the names of two generous contributors, Mr. W. Linton Landreth and Mrs. Tatham, were omitted from the list in our January issue.

In the Christmas Festival list, the contributor's name should have been Miss Katherine Young, in memoriam, instead of Miss Teney.

EIGHTH SERIES

We shall continue on Sunday mornings our sermons on Women of the New Testament, and append the names of the characters to be considered this month:

Feb. 1—The Woman Who Was a Sinner
8—Priscilla
15—Martha
22—Mary

CONFIRMATION

In our last issue we announced the glad intelligence that Bishop Rhinelander will administer this important rite on Sunday evening, March 8th. This subject has already been brought to the attention of the adult attendants of the church as well as of the Sunday-school scholars, and we earnestly hope a goodly number of candidates will attend the first meeting of the class on Monday evening, February 2d, and thereafter on Monday evenings, in the vestry room.

GENERAL MISSIONARY SOCIETY

"Owing to the illness of Mrs. Perot, the chair was occupied by Mrs. Morris.

"The Visiting Committee reported 65 visits for the month.

"Letters of thanks were read for aid sent to various parts of the mission field, and reports read for the different parochial societies and committees."

LENTEN SERVICES

Ash Wednesday—February 25th—the service will be held in the morning at 11, as usual. The offering will be given to All Soul's Mission, the Church of the Deaf Mutes. This is a very deserving, efficient missionary and charitable work, and should be generously supported.

Last year the offering amounted to $20.00. Let us hope that the offering will amount to $30.00 this year.

MONDAY EVENINGS AT 7.45

The Confirmation lectures for members of this class will be given in the parish building at 7.45 p. m., precisely, beginning Monday evening, February 2d.

Bishop Rhinelander will administer the rite of Confirmation on Sunday evening, March 8th.

AFTERNOONS

Tuesdays, 4.30—Evening Prayer and Reading.

Thursdays, 4.30—Evening Prayer and Address.

The services will be held in the church, and a choir of boys and girls under the careful leadership of Mrs. Higgins will lead the singing. They will be appropriately vested.

Mr. William F. Miller has kindly consented to officiate at the organ, and give brief recitals before the services.

We hope that every reader of this year's Lenten list will make a determined effort to attend just as many services as possible, and sincerely exclaim with the Psalmist, "I was glad when they said unto me, We will go into the House of the Lord."

RESOLUTIONS FOR LENT

1. If hitherto I have been neglectful of religion, I will think about it now.

2. If I have never had faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as my own personal Saviour, I will NOW believe that He "loved ME and gave Himself for ME."

3. If I have never been baptized, "what doth hinder me" NOW? I will be baptized into Him who died for me.

4. If I have not been Confirmed I cannot delay it longer; my heart is "ready and desirous to be Confirmed" into that Faith I now know to be so precious.

5. If I have never "drawn near in faith" to the Holy Table, I approach it now, for my soul longs for its spiritual food and refreshing grace.

6. If I have been indifferent about attending services, I dare not be so any longer; the God I serve is PRESENT to to bless me; can I be ABSENT?

7. If I have never worked for Him in His Church and its organizations, O Lord, hear now my prayer, "What wilt Thou have me to do?"

8. If I have kept back from the Lord what has been His, not mine, I offer all to Him now, freely, cheerfully, not grudgingly, but with a willing heart. I dedicate myself and all I have to Him who has given all to me.—Selected.

LENTEN SEWING SOCIETY

"The Lenten Sewing Society will commence the work of preparing a box for Miss Clarkson's Mission, at Eastover, S. C., on Thursday, February 12th, at 2.30 P. M., and all interested are cordially invited to attend and assist with the work. Contributions for sewing materials, and for the articles required for the box are earnestly requested and may be sent to Mrs. Moore, or to Mrs. C. B. Bartlett, 625 N. 16th St.

"Miss Clarkson especially asks for a second-hand phonograph. Has anybody one they wish to dispose of?"

LENTEN BAND OF WORSHIP

In order to encourage the scholars in the Main Department to attend all of the Lenten Services, we propose to form a Band of Worship, which will consist of three grades: those who attend every service in Lent, those who attend twice on Sunday and twice during the week, and those who attend once on Sunday and once during the week.

The teachers will hand in the names of those to whom the certificates are to be awarded, and the cards will be signed and presented by the Rector at the Festival on Easter Sunday night. Parents are earnestly requested to assist us in this endeavor to incite the children to perform this part of their bounden service to God, namely, "to worship Him, to give Him thanks, to call upon Him, and to honor His Holy Name and His Word."

FOREIGN COMMITTEE

"It was decided to take $30 of unappropriated money to apply on the fund of $600 for Dr. Teusler, which fund was completed at the close of the meeting.

"The offering of $50 at the Epiphany meeting was given to Rev. Mr. Matthews, from Cape Mount, as $100 had already been given to Dr. Brown.

"Letters of thanks were read from Rev. Mr. Snavely, of La Gloria, Cuba, for arithmetics, and from Rev. Mr. Jones, of Haiti, for Christmas gifts.

"Mrs. W. Homer Smith has been appointed chairman of the work in Cuba on the resignation of Mrs. Merritt.

"Mrs. Stroud made an appeal for the Lenten boxes to be sent to Dr. Teusler, and Mr. Matthews and Mrs. Lane told of the work in Mexico.

"Miss Ashurst, a missionary just returned from Cuba, spoke of the death of one of the three orphan girls supported by our scholarship, and asked for funds to defray her funeral expenses.

"Dr. Glenton spoke of the recent war in China, and of the changed attitude of the nation since that war. She is trying to raise $20,000 to build a new hospital for men and women, for which General Lee has given the land with $2,000. Dr. Glenton was the first United Offering missionary sent out in 1898, and has done splendid work in the Elizabeth Bunn Hospital in Wu Chang."

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS

"The meeting was opened by Mrs. Perot, who read from St. John 6: 27, and impressed upon us the example of Jesus, who 'came not to do His own will, but the will of His Father, who had sent Him.'

"The treasurer reported the sending of two commentaries on the New Testament to Rev. C. P. Cody, Flat Rock, N. C., valued at $3.19; $5 for salary of Rev. Pierce Jones, Haiti; $5 to the Visiting Nurse Society, Phila.; $5 to St. Agnes' Hospital, Raleigh, N. C.; $15 to Grace Hospital, Morganton, N. C.; $5 to Mr. W. Connelly, Penland, N. C.; $5 to C. P. C.; $1.75 to the Flower Fund; making a total expenditure of $34.94 for the month.

"Letters of thanks were read from Rev. Mr. Cody; from Bishop Patterson, Grace Hospital, Mena, Ark.; from the Southwark Neighborhood Guild; from Montana; from Mr. Berkley, of the Chapel of the Holy Communion, and from Concord, N. H. $5 was also appropriated for the Church Periodical Club.

"Mr. Connelly, from Penland, N. C., was present, and gave a full and interesting account of his work in the Appalachian Industrial School."

THE HOUSE OF REST FOR THE AGED

The generous interest which our parishioners are maintaining in this charitable and very deserving institution, which is largely dependent upon voluntary contributions, is very gratifying. Our subscriptions totaled in 1910, $44; 1911, $69; 1912, $70; 1913, $88; and this year, $110. Of this amount, the largest in our history, Miss Georgia F. Gardom, our representative to the Board of Managers, raised $73, of which $6 was given on Donation Day. Mrs. J. McGlathery, who is assisting her, secured $21, and $10 on Donation Day. May the splendid offering of 1913 be surpassed in 1914. We append a list of contributors:

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

"The president was joyfully greeted and warmly welcomed to the chair from which she has been so long absent on account of illness.

"122 visits were made on sick people and the parents of Sunday-school scholars during the past month, and fruit and flowers sent to shut-in persons.

"Our treasurer was authorized to pay the annual dues, and to transmit our contribution for the support of the missionary of the Daughters of the King."

THE CHOIR

There will not be any organ preludes on Sunday evenings, as the time is taken by the volunteer choir which sings on the church steps. The following anthems will be rendered by the regular Choir.

February 1—
"Praise my soul!" . . . . . Hall
"Lead kindly light"

February 8—
"He is watching over Israel" . Mendelssohn
"One sweetly, solemn thought" . . Ambrose

February 15—
"Hark! Hark, my soul" . . . . . Buck
"God is a Spirit" . . . . . Bennet

February 22—
"I heard the voice of Jesus say" . . Gilchrist
"I could not do without Thee" . . . Brackett

DOMESTIC MISSIONS

Each parish is obliged to contribute to the Apportionment Fund, and our "relative parochial share" is $1,768.05, and we especially desire to raise a portion of it on next Sunday morning, Feb. 8th. Our offering for Domestic Missions on the 2d Sunday in February last year was $112.06. What will it be next Sunday? Will you, generous reader, help us to raise $150.00? Very large as well as small donations will be necessary to even equal last year's offering. You will receive an unnumbered envelope in which to place your offering next Sunday. Absentees may send their contributions to H. B. Bartow, Esq., 427 Chestnut Street.

FLORAL REMEMBRANCES

In order to beautify the chancel, minister to the hearts of the congregation, and brighten the thoughts and homes of sick people, it is hoped that flowers will be furnished for the vases on the altar as memorials by members of the church. Flowers were furnished on

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY

There has been an exceptionally good attendance (nearly 30) every evening since the resumption of the meetings on January 6th, and some new and smiling faces have appeared in our midst, and gladly and heartily taken their part in the diversified programme. There is an abundance of musical talent, sufficient to form a good choral society. All the young people of the parish are cordially invited to join this joyous company, which numbers about forty congenial spirits.

INASMUCH MISSION SERVICES

Judging from the large attendance at the service last Sunday night, the interest in the evangelistic meetings is unabated. The members of the congregation sing the hymns heartily, are reverential during the prayers, listen attentively to the reading of the Word and the address, and express to Mr. Long, as they pass out, their high appreciation of the spiritial benefits they derive.

They were deeply impressed with the plain, practical and forceful exposition of the following topics: Jan. 4, "The Open Door"; Jan. 11, "Philadelphia's Miracle"; Jan. 18, "The King's Business"; Jan. 25, "A Simple Remedy"; and no doubt they will be especially interested in his address upon the "Slave Traffic" to-night (Sunday, Feb. 1).

Mr. Anderson's admirable rendition of the sacred songs, Jan. 4, "The Glory," and Jan. 25 "Lead, Kindly Light," also merited and received their sincere encomium.

As many as twenty responses to Mr. Long's request for quotations of scriptural verses have been heard at each of the services.

Mr. Lindsay, our skillful and faithful volunteer cornetist, aided by Mr. Williams and many choristers, have made the street vocal with God's praises. The members of the regular choir have encouraged the missioner, not only by their hearty musical interest in the services, but also by their quotations from the scriptures.

Nearly all our young people attend the services, and we are hopeful of seeing the older members occupy the pews before the Lenten season begins.

SENIOR AND JUNIOR CHAPTERS

The Senior Chapter, under the enthusiastic and efficient leadership of Mr. Long, has been making very satisfactory progress. There was an excellent attendance of members on Monday evening, January 12th, when the Rector admitted Mr. George Bransfield, Mr. S. Frank McEllen and Edward Manning to membership. At the Round-table Conference on Thursday, January 22d, at Mr. Miller's house, the treasurer of the diocese, we had eight members, one-third of the representatives present. On Monday evening, January 26th, Harold Murphy and Charles Trucksess were admitted to membership, the Rector conducting the service. Mr. Long arranged the definite work which the eleven men should do.

Mr. Little has certainly won the hearts of the Juniors. His interesting and instructive talks on Friday evenings, and hearty participation in the diversions that followed, have made them await their meetings with eager anticipation. Several of them accompanied him to the Round-table Conference.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL

The new and handsome carpet on the floor of the Sunday-school room has made it look quite attractive.

Twelve new scholars have been received since January 1st. Several scholars have become old enough to be promoted to the Main Department since Christmas. The attendance in all departments has been uncommonly good. Dr. Weintraub has resumed the instruction of her class. About 20 scholars sing with the choir on the church steps, and some of them quote verses of scripture during the service afterward.

PHYSICAL CULTURE CLASS

After the regular gymnastic and calisthenic exercises, in which all the members participate, nearly a dozen girls remain and engage in basket-ball. On Thursday, January 15th, the team from Epiphany Chapel lined up against our sextette and were defeated by the score of 9 to 4. On January 22d, the girls from Gaston Presbyterian Church competed with our maidens, and when the skirmish was over, the score, 40 to 4 in our favor, told a sad tale. Where can we find in the city a team that can give our championship team a close contest?

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD

Our two teams have demonstrated their superior ability in the Brotherhood League during the past month, with the result that our first team occupies second position among the 1st teams, and our second team is in fourth place in their division.
